We Gotta Bingo- Absolutely Hysterical

"The play is fabulous. It is the story of two ethnic Catholic churches merging in Saint Paul... and we the audience are invited."

"My favorite character was an emotionless husband who can't seem to find a bright side to anything in our world. He plunked down several times to discuss what a loser his girlfriendless son was."

"The whole church was up and polka dancing... hysterically funny."

"The show is catered by the neighboring restaurant Pazzaluna and we had a great meal."
