

Star Tribune

Theater review:

A hilarious night of bingo and beer!

We Gotta Bingo is great fun!

Christy Desmith

"In the great, burgeoning tradition of "interactive" theater -- in which audience members actively participate as if they're at a party -- Actors Theater of Minnesota brings us We Gotta Bingo!

"...performers -- in full clergy and polka champ regalia -- traverse the aisles , heckling and chit-chatting with the audience. If you're lucky, one yanks you from your seat, and you dance."

"...a raucous rendition of Beer Barrel Polka"

"The funniest character is Jeremy Dimini, a pink-faced youth choir director with clunky glasses that fall off his nose (perfectly played by Tom Lommel). Watching him navigate the social hall scene is brutally hilarious."

"...it's darn fun."

"This goofball comedy is a kick!"